

Residence le Sommet de Port Salut Confirms Sale of 2 Condo Units

Residence le Sommet de Port Salut is a newly developed luxury residence located just twenty minutes from the city of Les Cayes, in a region of Haiti locally renowned for its biodiversity and synchronicity of ecosystems.

Developer Frantz Kebreau is pleased to announce this week the sale of two condo units within the residence to buyers Pierre-Richard Martelly and Praguesede Marie Rachel Clerveau Martelly.

These luxurious new residences are being developed as both condominiums and as one of the finest vacation club rental experiences available. Residence services will include a physical fitness centre, bar and restaurant, private doorman, spa and massage area, and free shuttle service to the beach as well as the airport. Each of the stunning thirty-six residences will feature a private ocean view terrace, daily room cleaning, and access to the full range of exclusive amenities offered by one of the Caribbean's most relaxing and peaceful vacation experiences.

Newcomers to the Port Salut area will be inspired by the natural beauty of the Haitian countryside, as the natural fauna and clear mountain air provide a vacation experience like no other. Even the longstanding heritage of the local area is on full display with the Residence le Sommet de Port Salut's inspired architectural design, which draws influence from the region's rich historical background.

For those who may be interested in seizing this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, time is certainly of the essence. With the announcement of the sale of these two units, there are now only six condominiums remaining for purchase, with an anticipated price increase scheduled for January 1st, 2014.

The Residence le Sommet de Port Salut is destined to become one of Haiti's most sought-after vacation destinations in very short order. For its natural balance, calming environment, and inclusive worry-free vacation experience, this residence is simply in a class of its own. Anyone seeking information on condominium sales or vacation club rentals should certainly hurry.
